

YOUR COACHING OBJECTIVES

WHAT WOULD JESUS WANT ACCOMPLISHED?

Give each athlete an opportunity to invite Christ into his life.

Develop a personal interest and relationship with each player.

Develop each player's trust in me as a coach.

Build the fellowship of the church.

Reach out to the Unchurched

For each player to feel good about participating . . .

Develop each planner into a mature Christian

HOW CAN IT BE ACCOMPLISHED?

1. Give a personal testimony.
2. Share a Spiritual Laws Tract.

1. Pray for your players.
2. Take them out to lunch or breakfast

1. Share my coaching philosophy at a team meeting.
2. Meet privately with each player at least once during the season.
3. Meet my player's needs.

1. Have an end of the season party.
2. Invite Sunday School Class members to come out and support the team as fans.
3. Invite new church members to play on my team.

1. Ask team members to invite an unchurched friend to play.
2. Invite folks from the church and Sunday School prospect file to play.

1. See that everyone plays at least half the game.
2. Start everyone at least a few times each season.
3. Praise players for a job well done.
4. Encourage players when they are down.
5. Teach skills of the game.

1. Share about my desire for them to conform to the image of Christ.
2. Encourage them to attend Sunday School and Worship.
3. Be a Christ-like example.

See that His name is glorified and honored.

1. See that there is prayer before or after each game.
2. Rebuke, in private, any player who displays a wrong attitude.
3. Display sportsmanship at all times.

For me to be conformed to the image of Jesus Christ by coaching my team as He would.

1. Daily prayer, meditation, and Bible reading.
2. Regular church attendance.
3. Review of the above principles and objectives throughout the season.
4. Study the life of Christ.
